CCWOMEN PILLARS

At CCWomen, we operate on four principles that guide us:

BUILD A STAGE:

We empower women through celebration and providing opportunities for them to shine.

SKIN IN THE GAME:

We're passionate about creating a community we want to be a part of: human connection above all.

CRYSTAL CLEAR:

Transparency is our middle name. We know the value of research and data, and we always show our math.

READY FOR CHANGE:

Equity is our #1. We're watching, listening, and always on the lookout for ways to do better.

- Tangibility. Products should all have practical value along with emotional value.
- Celebration. Much of our community has been in the industry for 10+ years. Others are less senior but still need support. Genuine celebration helps keep us motivated, sharp, and determined.
